Do you have trouble choosing patterns that flatter your body type?

Then once you've made your pattern choice, wonder what fabric selection will work best?

Highlights of this event:

- Shape: How to define our body shape and why.
- Pattern: Learn what pattern styles works best for our shape.
- Fabric: Learn how to select the right fabric for our pattern choices.

Mary Lou Rankin will discuss how to define your body shape so we can choose pattern styles that complement your shape. She will teach us the trade secret of understanding the right fabric for your pattern choice. This event is perfect for beginners to advanced sewers.
